

WYOMING SPEECH, LANGUAGE and HEARING ASSOCIATION (WyoSHA) SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Eligibility

- Open to currently enrolled graduate students in the Division of Communication Disorders at the University of Wyoming.

Award

- Scholarships will be awarded to eligible graduate students to off-set the costs of tuition, books, and supplies. Awardees will be notified via e-mail in late April. Funds will be dispersed before the next academic semester.

Application materials

1. A copy of current transcript (unofficial/WYO WEB format is acceptable)
2. Typed-written statement that includes the following information: (no more than two typed pages; double-spaced; 12-point font)
 - Brief biography (i.e., tell us who you are and how you came to be in this profession)
 - Statement of professional goals (i.e., after completing graduate school)
 - A response to the following statement:

Mission Statement

The Mission of the Wyoming Speech-Language-Hearing Association (WyoSHA) is to support the professions of speech-language pathology and audiology through advocacy, public awareness, professional development, and advancing ethical principles and professional standards on behalf of its members and the individuals they serve. (WyoSHA website, 2016)

As a graduate student entering the SLP field, describe a situation from your clinical observations and experiences that relates to the WyoSHA mission statement and how that experience will shape your professional career.

Submission

Send the completed application electronically to the WyoSHA Scholarship Committee Chair at: wyoahascholarship@gmail.com

Deadline for application is March 1, 2024 by 5:00 pm (MST)

WSHA is the officially recognized association for Wyoming audiologists and speech-language pathologists by the American Speech-Language Hearing Association (ASHA).